Trustees Call Menlo High School Bids for April 14

Trustees of the Sequoia Union high school district, in special meeting Monday night, called for bids April 14 on construction of the new Menlo Park high school and set Jan. 15, 1951, as date when the plant must be completed.

The board ordered printing of plans which had been returned without change and with approval of state school officials.

Trustees said the printed plans should be ready for prospective bidders within a few days.

The Jan. 15 date, it was pointed out, does not mean the new school will not be completed before then. Nine months will be allowed for the job.

Original planning called for the school to be in operation in the fall of 1950, but calling for bids awaited return of approved plans from state officials.

No action was taken at Monday's meeting on a name for the school, to be constructed on the former Donohoe estate at Middlefield and Ringwood roads.

The temporary, official name is "Menlo Park high school," adopted by trustees for purposes of identifying plans and documents submitted to state school authorities.

The school as now planned would accommodate an average daily attendance of 800 students, but provision has been made for future expansion for a student body of up to 1500.

Cost of the original undertaking is estimated at $1,318,725, exclusive of lanscaping, furnishings and engineering and architectural fees.

The plans call for construction of 13 buildings under the initial project, although one building ... to house shops .. is alternative and bids may be made without including this structure

The buildings will include classrooms, the first sections of a gymnasium and a multi-purpose room that could be used as an auditorium, said Architect Arthur Janssen.

The site was obtained by the school board several months ago after lengthy negotiations with heirs of the Donohoe estate.

The new school will serve the south county area, including the Menlo Park, Ravenswood and Las Lomitas elementary school districts.

TO OBSERVE BIRTHDAY OF SCOUTING

PLAN WINDOW DISPLAYS—Members of Menlo Park and Atherton Girl Scout units will observe the 38th birthday of the Girl Scout movement and emphasize the role of the Juliette Low World Friendship fund by placing displays in the windows of Menlo Park stores during the week of March 11-17. Above, with Mrs. George Lyon, Juliette Low chairman for the Menlo Park-Atherton area council are (left to right) Donna Newport, Mary Grace Swift and Shirley Caletti, World Friendship fund representatives from their respective troops who are looking over dolls to be used in one of the displays. Juliette Low representatives from all troops in the council area will meet Monday afternoon at the Menlo Park Baptist church. —Menlo Camera Shop

Arrest, Warning Tickets Issued In School Zone

Menlo Park police issued 89 warnings to drivers during the first week of extension of the 25-mile-per-hour one on Santa Cruz avenue past Hillview school with the school's opening but have since began to issue arrest tickets to those not slowing down.

During the same period, according to a report submitted by Officer Louthlin Currell to Police Chief George Potter, eight citations were issued to drivers travelling at speeds which were termed "unreasonable."

Traffic past the school has slowed down "considerably" since extension of the speed limit zone and installation of signs, the report continued, adding that drivers, as a rule, consider the fact that children are in the area.

Another warning sign to give the school children added protection will be installed in the near future, Chief Potter said.

MP Man Held for Trial On Narcotics Charge

Wong Jim Wing, 55-year-old Menlo Park gardener, was bound over for trial in superior court following preliminay hearing before City Judge E. J. Ryan yesterday on charges of possessing narcotics.

Wing was arrested Feb. 6 after Menlo Park police and narcotics agents raided his home at 1435 San Antonio street.

How to Light Cigaret

THE HARD WAY

It's all in the day's routine:

Menlo Park fire district firemen were called to an Atherton residence Saturday. Reason: A furnace motor was giving off sparks when it shouldn't have.

Firemen checked a bit, learned the resident had lubricated the electric motor.

What did he use for lubrication?

Why, that little oilcan there.

The little can, it was found, contained cigaret lighter fluid, not oil.

The firemen returned to headquarters.

It's all in the day's routine.

City Hears:

Public Utilities Board Grants Smaller MP Water Rate Boost Than Requested

The California Water Service company yesterday was authorized by the state public utilities commission to increase certain rates to consumers in Menlo Park, Atherton and south county unincorporated areas.

City Manager Cecil Longson, informed of the order, said the increases were not as large as the company asked in hearings conducted in November and December and would give the utility $47,500 in additional yearly revenue rather than the $69,000 requested.

Date the rates will take effect was not announced.

MINIMUM BOOSTED

Under the new rates, minimum for users of less than 500 cubic feet of water per month was increased from $1.50 to $1.70. The company had asked that the rate be increased to $1.75.

For consumers using between 500 and 3000 cubic feet per month, the rate was increased from 25 to 29 cents per hundred cubic feet. The company had asked 32 cents.

Rates for consumers of between 3000 and 30,000 cubic feet were increased from 22 cents 25 cents per hundred cubic feet, in keeping with the company's request. Rates for users of more than 30,000 cubic feet were increased from 19 cents to 20 cents per hundred cubic feet.

Longson said the protests registered by the city had saved consumers a potential $21,500 per year, or 31 per cent of the $69,000 asked for by the water service company.

Injury Results In Police Warning

A three-year-old girl suffered minor injuries Monday, resulting in a warning from Police Chief George Potter that parents should keep their children from playing in the streets. The child apparently ran into the side of a truck driven by James W. Buffington of San Jose.

The driver told officers he was proceeding on Madera avenue at a slow speed when Christene Andersen of 1327 Madera avenue appeared suddenly in the street.

Bullfington told officers he contacted the child's mother and the two took the girl to Palo Alto hospital for treatment of bruises.

"Parents should take special care to keep their children from playing in the streets," Chief Potter stated. "After all, the streets are for automobiles."

Emil Balocco, found guilty by a jury last week of making an "over-the-counter'- gambling payoff, yesterday was fined $100 by Menlo Park Police Judge E. J. Ryan.

Ravenswood Recreation Leaders Seek to Save Community Center

A community movement to "save" the recreation building at 550 Bell street in East Palo Alto is expected to develop at a public meeting of the Ravenswood Recreation association at Ravenswood school auditorium at 8 p.m. March 16.

The association executive board, meeting at the home of President Don Walker, decided to open the session to the public, and invited members of the county board of supervisors and county recreation officials.

The recreation center, built with county funds on a site donated by residents, is faced with closing June 30 under a county supervisors' decision to abandon local recreation projects in unincorporated areas.

The center opened last January on a full-time schedule, under the direction of Jack Farrell, a county recreation department employe.

When the 1949-50 budget was made last year,, supervisors balked at supporting local recreation projects in unincorporated areas. One reason given was that municipal officials objected to such use of funds in unincorporated sections, since part of the tax load is borne by residents of cities.

However, the supervisors agreed to continue the East Palo Alto project and some others for the fiscal year that ends next June 30.

Walker said that letters have been sent county supervisors, County Recreation Director Ralph Shaw, Assistant Director Mel Kendall and Farrell, inviting them to the March 16 meeting.

TO DISCUSS PLANS

He said purpose of the session will be to correlate a recreation program in the fast-growing East and North Palo Alto areas and to determine plans for future use of the recreation center.

Shaw was not available for comment yesterday, but Kendall said there has been no change in the supervisors' plan to discontinue the project at the close of this fiscal year.

Kendall said it was difficult to determine what the project would cost the county to maintain on an annual basis, since it has been in full operation only since January. He said the only definite cost that might be computed would be Farrell's salary of $297 monthly.

The Ravenswood Recreation association and individual residents three years ago held a community fair to raise funds for purchase of a recreation center site.

RAISED $1000

Raising $1000, the organization purchased the site on Bell street and deeded it to the county. Supervisors then appropriated a sum to construct the building.

Construction began last summer and was sufficiently advanced for the building to become the scene of

After Long Hearing:

Planning Board Okays Permit For New St. Raymond's Church

After a three-hour hearing in which written and verbal protests were considered, the Menlo Park planning commission Monday night granted St. Raymonds parish a use permit for a church at Santa Cruz avenue and Arbor road.

The parish recently was activated under pastorship of the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Edwin J. Kennedy, who submitted a petition signed by 435 members of his prospective congregation.

At the same session, commissioners granted a use permit to Holy Trinity church for a proposed structure at Laurel street and Ravenswood avenue.

PARKING PROVIDED

There was no opposition to the Trinity application and permit was granted after Architect Kingsford Jones submitted a plot plan including a parking area required by the zoning ordinance adopted last year.

More than 150 persons were at the hearing on the St. Raymond's application. Attorneys representing 60 signatories to a petition protesting use of the Santa Cruz-Arbor site and the Archdiocese of San Francisco testified.

A use permit was required by the new Catholic parish since its property, an 11-acre site acquired more than a year ago by the archdiocese, is in a first class residential zone.

The parish plans to use as the place of worship a "Little theater" building on the site, formerly the McGinnis estate. The parish includes parts of Menlo Park, Atherton and unincorporated area west of El Camino Real.

Msgr. Kennedy told the commission that of 36 residents with a 250-foot "zone of interest" near the church area, 19 had expressed ap-

New Construction Tops $200,000 Early in March

A total of 21 building permits authorizing construction of 16 single-family dwellings, two new duplexes and other work at an aggregate cost of $208,025 was issued in Menlo Park the first six days of March.

A permit for a $10,000 addition to an office building owned by H. Cauflighal at 1077 El Camino Real was included in the total.

The permits for new homes included those to Heyman Homes, Inc., for a $17,000 residence at 1000 Wallea drive, an $18,000 residence at 8 Cheryl place, a $16,000 dwelling at 10 Cheryl place and a $16,000 home at 1070 San Mateo drive; to Marino Covolo for an $11,000 residence at 320 University drive; to J. J. Weyland for a $13,000 dwelling at 1750 Poppy avenue.

To F. Coulombe for an $8000 residence at 1121 Carlton avenue and to Mardell Construction company for a $7000 home at 1119 Madera avenue, a $7000 home at 1151 Hollyburne avenue, an $8000 home a 1235 Hollyburne avenue, a $7000 home at 1130 Windemere avenue, an $8000 residence at 1217 Henderson avenue, a $7,000 dwelling at 1125 Henderson avenue, an $8000 dwelling at 546 Hamilton avenue, an $8000 home at 145 Hill street and an $8000 home at 224 Terminal way.

Permits for new duplexes, to cost $11,000 each and to be built at 1035-1037 and 10-25-1027 Florence lane, were issued to R. W. Beckstrom.

Permit for a duplex addition to cost $9000, was issued to Frank Backlund for property at 1333 Hoover street.

Petty Theft Charge Follows Arrest

Buster Crabtree, 31, of 939 Alberni avenue, was arrested Monday evening on charges of petty theft when allegedly attempting to take shingles from a construction site at Hedge and Bay roads.

The arrest, was made by Officer Dean Harris, who sighted the arrested man's auto parked at the site at 7:45 p.m.

Menlo Park Begins Tree Planting Job

The city's tree-planting program is to begin this week in the Brookdell 3 subdivision, residents of which were first to inform the city as to the types of trees they preferred.

A representative of the nursery which supplied the trees is instructing street department workers in the proper methods of planting, City Manager C. L. Longson said.

Plans call for planting 20 liquidamber trees on Garland drive and Cotton street as the first part of the project.

Tabulation of residents' preferences in other parts of the city are still going ahead, Longson said, adding that the Suburban Park association has almost completed a canvass of that area.

Real Estate Leaders To Attend MP Meeting

California Real Estate Commissioner D. D. Watson and two officers of the California Real Estate association will be guests of the Menlo-Atherton Board of Realtors at a luncheon meeting to be held Tuesday at the Marie Antoinette hotel.

The officers of the state organization who will attend are F. H. Lakey, newly-elected president, and Eugene P. Conser, secretary.

Menlo Park civic and service club leaders will also attend the gathering.

Red Cross Drive Nears Halfway Point In MP Area

The south end of San Mateo county expects to reach 50 per cent of its $17,058 quota in the current drive of the Sequoia chapter, American Red Cross, by this weekend.

This was announced yesterday by Mrs. Wallace E. Ott and George E. Moore respectively chairmen for Menlo Park and Atherton. Reports slated to be made today and tomorrow are expected to boost the figure nearer the goal, they said.

As of Tuesday afternoon, $6083.28 had been reported in the south county.

For the entire chapter area, $18,536.74 had been contributed Tuesday toward the chapter quota of $38,474.

The $6083.28 reported as of Tuesday included $1429.30 from the Menlo Park residential area, $608.63 from the business section, $691.10 from the unincorporated area and $3354.25 from Atherton.

George W. Naylor, chapter general vice chairman in charge of the south county campaign, urged volunteer workers to complete their calls as soon as possible and make their reports.

Dr. William E. Kratt, Sequoia chapter chairman and president of Menlo School and College, emphasized the need for reaching the quota to carry on the vital activities of the chapter.

As We See It...

WAY OPEN FOR NEW CHURCHES

We are pleased to note that the Menlo Park planning commission has approved use permits for two churches—a new building for Holy Trinity and an entirely new undertaking, St. Raymond's parish.

The case involving the Trinity Protestant Episcopal church structure projected at Laurel street and Ravenswood avenue was based on meeting a specific requirement in the revised zoning ordinance adopted last year—a requirement that minimum parking space be provided off-street at any new church building. The Holy Trinity property long has been put to use as a place of worship.

The petition for use of property at Santa Cruz avenue and Arbor by the recently-created St. Raymond's Catholic parish involved entirely different points. The site lies in a first class residential area and while it has been the property of the archdiocese of San Francisco for some time, it has not been used as a place of public worship. Hence the requirement that a use permit be obtained for a structure that stands on the site.

While recognizing completely the right of adjoining property owners to protest, we could see little merit in the argument that establishment of a church in the area would be objectionable It appears that the very nature and size of the land involved—an 11-acre site—is adaptable to church use. There is ample room for parking areas. There is an element of seclusion because of the very spaciousness of the property.

As a city expands, so must its facilities for worship as well as for conduct of business. St. Raymond's parish was created to meet the problems resulting from such a growth. It represents a division of the Church of the Nativity parish and a natural geographical planning to meet the needs of the community.

An interesting part of the hearing that resulted in granting of a use permit was an assertion by a qualified appraiser that surrounding property values are increased, rather than lowered, by establishment of a church.

This contention was further pointed up when a member of the planning commission itself noted that two subdivisions near the Menlo Park Baptist church have been undertaken since the edifice was completed last summer.

We feel that persons residing in the area of St. Raymond's will have no regrets that a needed new place of worship has been put into being.

The California Taxpayers association reports that milady's Easter bonnet represents some 150 taxes in its construction. Easter didn't used to be that complicated. You ran around the yard and found the colored eggs. That's all there was to it and the treasury department just didn't give a darn.

Burgess Tells of Convention

By CHARLES P. BURGESS

It is a great feeling to be back in Menlo Park again after more than two weeks camping out of a suitcase in Mexican, Cuban, and Alantic City hotels. Keith Cole and I, as board members of Sequoia Union high school, together with Clyde Ogden, our superintendent, and fifty other California school board members and administrators from Redding to Chula Vista traveled together to the 76th Annual Convention of the American Association of School Administrators in Atlantic City.

The California group obtained special rates for the trip and went by way of Mexico and Cuba.

Our group assembled in Los Angeles and went by bus to Tijuana where we boarded a Mexican plane for Mexico City. We spent two days there, one seeing the city, and the second on a motor trip to Cuernavaca and Taxco. The available time was much too short.

Next morning we took the plane to Merida in Yucatan and then motored about 75 miles to Chichen Itza deep in the jungle where we climbed up and examined the ruins of eight or 10 of the tremendous Mayan pyramids, temples and other structures built almost a thousand years before Columbus discovered America.

Next day we returned to Merida and on the following day flew to Havana where we spent the next night. Next afternoon we flew to Miami, where we had a few hours layover until we made connections with the plane taking us to Atlantic City. We arrived about 4:30 a.m. in sub-freezing temperatures. How I appreciated our California weather from that time on!

We were in Atlantic City six days attending the convention. On the first day (after a little nap after reaching the hotel) Cole and I spent about six hours in the exhibit hall examining the "largest exhibition of school equipment, supplies, and books ever assembled in the world."

There were 308 exhibitors and we collected reams of literature and many samples to bring back with us. There was also an architects' exhibit with models, photographs and plans in profusion.

That night Ogden, Cole and I attended the annual banquet of the newly organized National School Boards Association. The theme of the evening appeared to be the need for school boards to obtain the help of citizens' committees to assist in the solving of school problems. Next day Cole and I attended a five hour session of a workshop on school problems called by invitation by the National Citizens' Commission for the Public Schools.

Keith and I hadn't been invited but we wandered in and were welcomed. We sat in on the group of distinguished invitees working on the advisory citizens' committee idea.

The following four days were filled with the program of the A. A. S. A. At the general sessions there were principally big name speakers such as Senator Wayne Morse, Senator Margaret Smith, Walter Reuther, David Lilienthal, Beardsley Ruml, Eleanor Roosevelt and Norma Cousins. There was not much of technical school information at these sessions.

But at the discussion sessions there was a wealth of information. As many as 17 of these sessions were held concurrently on as many different subjects, and as many were pertinent to Sequoia, Ogden, Cole and I were hard put to cover all we would have liked to sit in upon.

It was necessary that there be numerous concurrent discussion sessions, however, for the attendance at the convention was estimated at 15,000, and the attendance at each meeting had to be limited in order to get much discussion.

In the next few issues of this column I will brief the principal ideas I obtained from the meetings I attended. Meanwhile, the big school news in Menlo Park is that bids will be received for the construction of our high school on April 14.

This is a couple o fmonths behind our schedule, but at least it is another milestone, and tangible construction activity will soon be apparent.

Your Income Tax

Filing of Estimated Declaration Required from Many Taxpayers

(Editor's note: This is the sixth and last in a series of article prepared by collector of internal revenue James G. Smyth of the First California district outlining rules and regulations to be followed in filing federal income tax returns.)

The filing of an estimated declaration of federal income tax liability for 1950 is a requirement for thousands of taxpayers.

The purpose of requiring taxpayers to file declaration of estimated tax is to make the tax liability for almost all taxpayers subject to a "pay-as-you-go" plan.

The first quarterly installment due under the declaration is to be paid when the declaration is filed, on or before March 15. Quarterly installments must be made on or before June 15, September 15, and on Jan. 15 of 1951.

In the event a taxpayer may feel he is unable to make an accurate estimate of his income in advance, he should remember that the estimates do not have to be absolutely accurate. He should consider all the facts and circumstances he thinks will effect his income for the year.

A person employed at a given wage or salary, may presume, in the absence of facts indicating the contrary, that his pay will continue unchanged during the year.

A person who receives income from interest or dividends may consider, in the absence of information indicating a change in policy, that rate of income will remain unchanged throughout the year.

Businessmen should estimate their probable gross income, deductions, and credits, and then file a declaration with all these facts in mind.

If there is any change in circumstances later on, an amended declaration may be filed on or before any installment date.

A declaration must be filed by every citizen or resident of this county who expects to be required to file a return and who expects to receive:

Wages (subject to withholding) in excess of $4,500, plus $600 for each exemption claimed. For example—wages in excess of $5,100 for a single person with no dependents; wages in excess of $5,700 if married and filing a joint return, or if single with one additional exemption. In other words, the amount goes up $600 for each additional exemption, including any exemption for age or blindness.

Income from all other sources in excess of $100.

Individuals who expect to have an income of less than $600 are not required to file declarations.

Non-taxable income, such as old age pensions, social security benefits, and veterans pensions are not to be included as income.

When husband and wife each have income sufficient to require declarations both must file. They may file separately or jointly. Whether they file one joint declaration or two separate declarations, will not affect their choice of filing one joint tax return or two separate returns at the end of the year.

Declarations should be made on Form 1040-ES, entitled "Declaration of Estimated Tax." This is a small printed slip, copies of which have been mailed to all persons who filed declarations last year. These forms may be obtained from the nearest internal revenue office.

Veterans' Guide

Veteran Given Right to Name NSLI Beneficiary

The recent U. S. supreme court decision reaffirming a veteran's right to choose the beneficiary of his national service life insurance despite California community property laws should serve as a reminder to veterans in San Mateo county to check the beneficiary designation in their NSLI policies.

This is the counsel of Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer, who has been trying to get across to veterans the importance of such a checkup in order to avoid difficulties and even hardship on the part of surviving dependents in case of death.

In the California (Stanislaus county) case, a veteran had designated his parents as beneficiaries of his NSLI. His widow, from whom he had been separated, claimed half the insurance payments on the ground that the premiums had been paid out of community property.

The California courts ruled in her favor, but the highest tribunal held that Congress intended the veteran's choice of a beneficiary to be binding as far as government insurance was concerned.

While parallels to that are rare, Granger said, the reverse is true in a number of instances. Some veterans have married and even acquired children without taking steps to change the beneficiary designation on their NSLI to their new dependents, he observed.

These veterans were advised to call at the veterans service office in the courthouse, Redwood City for information and assistance in completing the necessary forms, or about any matters in connection with their NSLI.

Arrangements have been made for the radio address of the presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church, the Right Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, D. D., to be heard at the 11 o'clock service at Holy Trinity Sunday morning. The bishop's address brings to a head a nine weeks campaign to prepare church members to respond to the appeal to support a greatly increased budget for 1950. This budget was adopted by the general convention of the Episcopal church in San Francisco in October, and provides for an advance in nearly every department of church work. It includes the church's annual appropriation for world relief, and so ties in with the "One Great Hour of Sharing" appeal which is being made by many denominations on March 12.

The Rev. Don Emerson Hall

The Rev. Don Emerson Hall Sunday will introduce as pulpit guest the Rev. Archie R. Crouch, missionary, author and columnist, who will speak on "China".

To readers of the church papers Rev. Crouch is widely known through his column "The Christian Front in China". To Presbyterian children, his own among them, and to a great many young people he is well known as the author of missionary stories in Missionary Mail and Five Continents, youth publications of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. To adults he is identified as the author of many forceful articles appearing in church magazines and in Women and Missions.

Reverend Crouch was assigned to work with the Riverbend Christian high school in Ningpo and scarcely had classes in English, gardening and agriculture been organized than the first bombs fell there. The Crouch family, in the tradition of missionaries, plunged into relief work and in maintaining a camp for mothers and children until, in late summer, the "furlough" year, Rev. Crouch returned with his family.

In June, 1944, he returned alone to take an active part in the establishment of Christian occupational cooperatives in South Yunnan.

Here again on limited furlough, Rev. Crouch will be meeting church and service groups across the land to share with them his experiences.

List Safety Rules For Kite Flying

Kite season comes with the prevailing breezes of spring, bringing the urge to thousands of boys and girls to make and fly kites.

It also brings an annual warning from Pacific Gas and Electric company to both parents and children that kites falling into power lines can cause possible fatal injuries and serious property damage. The hazards of kite flying also apply to flying model airplanes.

P. G. and E.'s code for safe kite flying follows:

1. DON'T fly a kite near electric or trolley wires.
2. DON'T climb a pole to untangle a kite.
3. DON'T let a kite go over radio or television aerials.
4. DON'T build or buy a kite with metal or wire in the frame or tail.
5. DON'T use tinsel string, wire, or any kind of twine that has a metallic substance. Use plain cotton or linen cord.
6. DON'T run across streets or highways while flying kites.
7. DON'T touch fallen electric wires. Report them immediately to P. G. and E.
8. DON'T fly a kite when it is raining. A wet string is a conductor of electricity.

Deaths

Paul J. Murphy

Paul J. Murphy, 47, builder and developer of Mills Court and many other south Peninsula subdivision projects, died last week after a brief illness.

Murphy was a director of the Peninusla General Contractors association and was well-known throughout the area.

Murphy was a native of Salida, Calif.,and a graduate of Modesto high school. He attended Stanford university, where he was affiliated with the Delta Upsilon fraternity.

Survivors include his wife, Mildred and four children: Paul Jr., a University of Santa Clara student; John, 15, Sequoia high school student; Covert, 4 and Dix, 1. All reside at 2105 Eaton avenue, San Carlos.

Other survivors nclude brothers Ray and Herbert Murphy of San Carlos. Frank Murphy of Alameda, and sisters Ethel Murphy of Oakland and Mrs. Maxine Dickson of San Francisco.

Funeral services were conducted Monday from the White Oaks chapel in San Carlos with requiem mass at St. Charles church.

W. P. Tyrrell

William P. Tyrrell, area resident for more than 26 years, passed away in San Mateo Saturday and was buried following funeral services held Monday in San Francisco.

Tyrrell was the husband of Margaret Tyrrell, 88, who died Jan. 31 in a fire which swept the kitchen of the couple's home at 528 Encina avenue, North Fair Oaks.

A native of Dublin, Ireland, Tyrrell is survived by nephews George W. and Frank E. Purser and niece, Mrs. John H. Taylor. He was an uncle of the late Richard H. and Louis M. Purser.

Interment was at Holy Cross cemetery in Colma.

Baptist Men's Group Sets Election Meet

The Men's Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church of Menlo Park, will have its monthly dinner and meeting March 10 at 6:30 p.m., at the church.

There will be election of officers. J. M. Carlson will show motion pictures on China.

BABY SHOWER

The usual order of things underwent drastic alteration last week when Mrs. Jack Duttweiler, 1043 Ringwood road, was honored by a baby shower tendered exclusively by male friends of the family.

The shower was given at the home of Douglas Guy, 1037 Ringwood road.

A cake decorated in an appropriate stork and bootie motif was presented by Harry Miner. Other contributions ranged from a bottle warmer to an "automatic diaper changer."

Those present included the honored guest's husband, Miner, Guy, Bob Howell, Bill Roth, Don Rodeen, Mike Belangie and Al Beucus.

CHURCH PERMITS

proval of the project, 14 had opposed it and three had indicated neutrality.

Msgr. Kennedy said the petition for permit concerned only the building to be used as a place of worship and a parking area, and not any other church activity.

Opponents indicated belief that other uses would follow, with Attorney Kenneth MacDougall, representing protest petition signers, asserting:

"It seems the buyer of such a piece of property—11 acres—would have some long range plans."

MacDougall said that growth of the parish' field of interest would lead to "more and larger public gatherings, destroying the secluded atmosphere which has made the area the valuable property it now is."

CITES TRAFFIC

He also declared traffic, noise and annoyance to neighbors would result from public gatherings in a residential area.

Jack Hayes, a district tax administrator for the state board of equalization, told the commission his experience is that a church increases values of surrounding property.

Hayes quoted letters from three bank appraisers in support of his contention.

O. H. Olson, Menlo Park civic leader, spoke in favor of the project.

Andrew Burke, attorney for the archdiocese of San Francisco, quoted rulings by the United States supreme court and also by the Ohio state supreme court in support of a contention that "divine worship is the highest use to which a piece of property can be put."

MAP PREPARED

The commission then recessed while Building Inspector J. D. Steiger prepared a map showing property within 250 feet of the site.

The motion to grant use permits to both churches was made by City Attorney James T. O'Keefe Jr., ex-officio member of the commission. He said he was impressed with arguments backing the role of the church in a growing community.

O'Keefe pointed out that as evidence a church does not lower property values, two subdivisions have been undertaken near the Menlo Park First Baptist church since its building was completed last summer.

Both permits then were granted by unanimous vote.

Dachshund Pup Wins Kennel Club Honors

Dokjan's D'Artagnan, owned by Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Cook of Menlo Park was named best of winners in the dachshund class at a dog show held by the Oakland Kennel club this weekend in that city.

The dog, nicknamed "Darty", was in competition for the first time at the showing.

REC BUILDING

another community fair in October, at which about $800 was raised for furnishings and equipment.

Full use of the building began after heating equipment, purchased from the $800, was installed.

Since January, the structure has been used week days from 1 to 6 p.m. and from 7:30 to 9 p.m. most week nights. Among events held there are family folk dance classes Tuesday nights and teen-age dances Friday nights. A college boxing tournament is to be held the night of March 14.

The building is open Saturdays for trampoline, tumbling and boxing instruction, ping pong games and basketball. Saturday nights are reserved for adult recreation activities.

MP Postoffice Branch Opened on Bay Road

The Menlo Park postoffice kept pace with growth in the eastern part of the city with opening of a branch office in that area last week.

The new station, known as Menlo Park branch office number 1, is in a building of the Flood Park shopping center at 663 Bay road.

Sophie Novak was named operator of the office which will handle mail, money orders, registry, stamp sales and special delivery.

St. Patrick's Dance Set at Gym March 18

The tenth annual St. Patrick's day dance sponsored by the St. Joseph's Men's club will be held at Burgess park gym the evening of March 18.

Howard Frederick's 12-piece orchestra will provide music for the affair, which will be informal.

Tickets bay be obtained from members of the club.

NOTICE TO VETERANS

All veterans owning property in San Mateo County who are entitled to the benefits of tax exemption as provided for by Section 1¼, Article XIII of the Constitution of the State of California, are hereby notified that the period for filing is from the first Monday in March to the last Monday in May. Application or exemption must be made ANNUALLY.

Any person claiming the veteran's exemption, or the spouse of such person, shall appear before the assessor, shall give all information required and answer all questions in the affidavit, and shall subscribe and swear to the affidavit before the assessor. If any person claiming an exemption fails to follow the required procedure, the exemption is waived by the person. (Sec. 260, Calif. Revenue and Taxation Code).

One year pins: Carlton Lambert, Keith Abler, David Hatley.

Camino Camera Club Sees Demonstrations

Portraiture and lighting techniques were demonstrated last night at the regular meeting of the Camino Camera club, held in building 530 at the civic center.

The demonstration was presented by Joseph Tannen, west coast representative of the Burke and James photo supply company.

In the judging of prints which followed the demonstrations, the club's "shadow box", which permits members of the audience to act as judges of the prints being shown, was used for the first time.

Print competition prizes were awarded in black and white salon, advanced and beginner classes.

The possibility of creating a new division for "fun" pictures which do not fit in any of the categories in which prints are submitted at the present time was also discussed.

Big Trip in Store for Them:

Two Boy Scouts of MP Area Named To Attend World Jamboree in June

Two Boy Scouts of the Menlo Park area have been chosen by sponsoring groups to attend the international Scout jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., in June.

Tommy Fitch, Star scout and son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Fitch of 472 Oak court, East Palo Alto, was chosen by the Ravenswood-Willow Boosters club to represent Troop 103.

The club named members Hy Zimmer, Jim Fazio, Hy Stubbe and Walter Sjosten to meet with Tommy's parents and arrange his trip to the jamboree. Mrs. Don Walker was appointed head of a committee to help finance the trip.

Bob Brewer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chick Brewer of 1975 Capitol avenue, was named by the East Palo Alto Lions club. He is a first class scout in Willow Troop 151. The club will help finance his attendance.

Ted Brown, retiring scoutmaster of Troop 163, introduced his successor and members of his troop provided entertainment at last week's regular meeting of the Menlo Park Lions club, sponsor of the Boy Scout unit.

The new scoutmaster introduced to the sponsors is Bill Brill, formerly assistant scoutmaster of the troop and state highway engineer.

Following the introduction and presentation of other members of the troop by Senior Patrol Leader John Hancock, Wade Hampton entertained with boogie-woogie selections on the piano.

Travelogue Pictures Shown to EPA Grange

An explanation of the East Palo Alto Grange sales slip contest by Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Markham and travelogue motion pictures formed the program at the Tuesday night meeting of the organization.

Mrs Anthony Juliana, flora, was in charge of the evening's program which included draping of the club's charter in honor of George Dodson, East Palo Alto contractor who died two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gates and Mr. and Mrs. John Ewing served refreshments.

Cement Worker Hurt In Fall at Plant

Charles Bartholomew, 559 9th avenue, was reported in fair condition after suffering a fractured hip in a fall as he alighted from the cab of a cement mixing machine at a San Carlos feed and fuel plant.

Witnesses stated that the 52-year-old victim apparently slipped on a cable which moved as he placed his weight on it.

Bartholomew was taken to San Mateo county hospital for treatment and transferred to Palo Alto hospital.

Talk For 'Teen-Agers

By Ann Maris

The Sequoia campus has been brightened considerably with the appearance of a lovely green and yellow nylon-canvas canopy that covers the dance platform in the recreation area.

According to all the "oohs" and "ahs" that have been expressed, it seems that the canopy is one big success. The money for the covering was raised by the student body during its magazine sales campaign.

Over $2,000 was collected, so the Cherokees feel that they have something that they can be proud of and that is really theirs. More power to the guys and gals responsible for this project.

NOTICE: There will be no Ravenswood Rec dance this Friday. The next dance will be held March 17.

Why is it that some (and I said some) students always leave their homework till the last minute? That is a question that has been baffling me for the last year or so.

Take a typical Friday afternoon after school. You walk into the house, drop you books and make a bee-line for the refrigerator. After cleaning up a couple of platefulls of pie, cheese, soup, and what have you, you close the now almost empty refrig and head for that ever-calling homework.

But when you glance at those horrible assignments you decide "Oh, well, I have the whole weekend to do them". Saturday morning arrives and your best pal phones to meet you.

And besides you'll have all afternoon to start your school work. (Dreamer). You go into all the stores and try on all those things you have been dying to get. Of course, with your allowance you really couldn't afford them right now but it is fun to try them.

By this time you feel that it is getting a little bit late and when you look at your watch you see that it's almost four o'clock.

Jeepers, only seven minutes to catch the bus. Arriving home, you find that you have just enough time to set the table and get ready for your date tonight.

Of course, you wouldn't be caught dead studying on a Saturday night. Sunday morning after church your parents have out-of-town visitors who decide to stay for Sunday night dinner, Homework? Why no, Mom, hardly any at all. (No, just twenty lines of Caesar to translate, an English oral report on a book you haven't read and a geometry test.

By the time the guests leave you decide that the life of a 'teenager isn't worth living. Now you tell Me why I always leave my homework till the last minute.

Fourteen members of the Junior Nativity Youth club of Menlo Park went to Pinecrest for a day of skiing. Accompanying them was a group from Our Lady of Lourdes in Oakland. Those from Menlo were Roy Lang, Sharon O'Brien, Paul Brown, Henry Bauer, Joell Whitlock, Tom Morey, Doris Gross, Nancy Derry, Sharon Dyer, Anna Martini, Clarence Serrari, Helen Bradley, Dovaleen Gross and Jackie Kearns. Chaperoning was P. Bush.

The Menlo Park Presbyterian high school church group spent its Sunday evening fellowship services viewing a movie on Christian stewardship.

Those present were Bruce Tjaden, Carol Mixter Jim Marley, Sondra Nelson, Francis Wright, Molly Bray, John Lomax, Shirley Arnott, Joann Wild, John Gant, Bev Wilson, Norm Shiller, Sally Coburn, Roger Ahlenius Sue Pierce, Boyd Mickley, Walter Johnson, Bob Johnson and Dave Roberts.

Just learned that a council of parents was held Monday evening at the Atherton home of Mrs. Everett W. Carlson, sponsor of the Baptist Youth Fellowship group. This organization includes teen-age and college-age youths of the Menlo Park Baptist church.

Parents offered their suggestions on the topic "How to Better the Youth Program of the Church and Make It Attractive to the Young People."

MP WOMEN'S CLUB HEARS SPEAKERS ON TWO SUBJECTS

Members of the Menlo Park Women's club heard talks on two topics Tuesday afternoon at a meeting held at the social hall of the Presbyterian church.

First speaker was Bent Pontoppidan, Danish exchange student at Stanford university who described his homeland as it was before and since the war, and discussed the effects of the Marshall plan.

Second speaker was Dr. Lawrence H. Cook, secretary of the board of trustees of the Menlo Park sanitary district, who described the district's proposed sewage treatment plant and showed slides dealing with water pollution and sewage disposal.

The talks followed a short business meeting at which members of the club heard reports from committees.

A dessert luncheon was served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Florence Ohler, with Mrs. Ola Love, Mrs. Thomas L. Cuff, Mrs. T. Stendell, Mrs. J. T. Aabel and Mrs. Vera Johnson assisting.

PA STANFORD CLUB PLANS EASTER DANCE AT WICKETTS' HOME

Saturday, March 25 is being ringed on the calendar by members of the Stanford Club of Palo Alto. That evening they will enjoy an Easter formal dance at the home of the John Wicketts at 229 Polhemus Ave., Atherton.

Reservations to the affair are being limited to 125 couples. Bids can be obtained from Mrs. Gene Mason, club treasurer and dance chairman, at 330 El Camino Real, Atherton.

Jerry Samuel's seven-piece orchestra will play for dancing from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. Ball gowns will be worn by the women. Men will don either business suits or tuxedos.

Assisting Mrs. Mason with plans are Madeline Struck, Betty Read, Marriet Haas, Camilia Hauck, Mary Phares, Mrs. Lynn Shrader, Mrs. John Hueig, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kertz, Mr and Mrs. Fred Norman and George Grinnel.

EPA JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB NAMES LEADERS

New officers were elected and a new monthly project was selected at the Tuesday night meeting of the East Palo Alto Junior Women's club at the home of Mrs. Louis Bennett, 1036 Menlo Oaks drive.

The new officers included Mrs. John Fulton, president; Mrs. E. L. Bennett, vice president; Mrs. William Weisheimer, secretary; Mrs. John Richter, corresponding secretary and Mrs. William H. Jones, treasurer.

The new project will include visits to the San Mateo county old people's home, starting with the visit of seven club members March 15.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Juanita Ireton and Mrs. Merriam Wilson.

SINGS IN SJC CONCERT

Kenneth Mullen, 1047 Greenwood drive, appeared Tuesday evening with the San Jose State College A Capella choir when that group presented its annual concert in San Jose. Mullen is a sophomore music major at the college.

Birthday and anniversary celebrations seem to be running at a new high lately.

It was a wedding anniversary celebration hosted by the Taylor Pillsburys at their home in Pebble Beach recently honoring the Winston Churchill Blacks of Atherton.

The Tito Bianchis laid out their welcome mat last Saturday in honor of Tito's natal day.

On Wednesday, it was a combined anniversary and birthday celebration for Frances and William Trippe III (her birthday). On that night the Trippe's attended the St. Joseph's benefit fashion show and party staged at I. Magnin's in San Francisco. With them went the William Hendricksons of Atherton.

And in the young set it was Sally Grover who celebrated her birthday last Saturday with a dinner party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chace Grover, at their home on Whiskey Hill road.

Notes at random:

New addition to the household of Mary and Gordon Knapp is Nipper, a pony complete with a governess cart (basket type with two wheels). Needless to say this acquisition is very dear to the hearts of the Knapps' children, Jimmy and Kathy, as well as to the rest of the neighborhood in the Pear Orchard.

Recently back from a jaunt to Honolulu are Bobbie and Holt Atherton.

It will be a third child due to arrive the end of May for Doris and Al Beucus of Menlo Park.

Now esconced at the home of her parents, the Alfred B. Swinertons of Woodside, is Jane Swinerton Mills and her little daughter, Amanda. Jane recently rented her house in San Francisco to Bettie and Felix Hyde.

Nearly completed is the home of Geraldine and John Brooke in Woodside. Meanwhile the Brookes and their three sons spend weekends in a converted stable on their property.

Just returned from Yosemite are Helen and Huntley Castner and their three children.

Palm Springs has drawn many a Peninsulite this cold winter. Among those who have basked in the desert sun are Esther and Chace Grover, Maggie Brown (Mrs. Ken) who, from Palm Springs went on to Camelback Inn in Arizona with Ken.

The Menlo Circus club Wednesday morning was the scene of a meeting of the Palo Alto unit of the San Francisco Junior league. Everyone there who attended last week's forum meeting at the home ofPatsy and Ed Kiel is going on and on about how interesting the lecture was.

Recent house guests of Mrs. Walter Boardman at her home in Woodside were Mr. and Mrs. Smithing Waters from Long Island.

It's to be a baby shower next Wednesday for Kay McKaren (Mrs. Ken) which Bliss Schmitz (Mrs. Arthur) will host. Kay and Ken expect their second addition around mid-March.

Menlo Park Junior NDGW Installs New Officers

As 110 persons looked on, the Menlo Park Junior Native Daughters of the Golden West held public installation of officers at Central school auditorium last Friday night.

Ceremonies were conducted by Nancy Rogers, junior past president, assisted by Janet Hampton and Barbara Simonini.

Jackie Anderson, new junior president, introduced visiting Senior N. D. G. W. officials: Mrs. Emily Ryan and Mrs. May Boldman of San Francisco, Mrs. Margaret Farnsworh of San Jose and Mrs. David Carlson of Menlo Park, all past state presidents.

Fire Chief and Mrs. Thomas Cuff were presented, as were Junior N.D.G. W. groups from San Jose and San Francisco.

Lois Chasseur, treasurer of the Menlo Park Junior unit, presented the group with an American flag crocheted by her mother and grandmother and a standard made by her father.

A program was given by Janet Hampton, Faye Kidder, Donna De Verre, Priscilla Koernig, Michelle Callahan and Judy Knudsen, followed by refreshments.

Mrs. Alice Brennaman of the Menlo Park parlor of N. D. G. W. provided piano music during the ceremonies.

These Are Your Neighbors

Ravenswood Doings

By Mrs. Don Walker
DA 2-3355

Notes of three birthday parties this past week have come our way and all were reported lots of fun. Two were junior age, being for Margaret Judith Brohmer, who is now seven and Daintree Davies, who now registers 10 years. The senior member of the trio of parties is Chris Roman, and he's not telling!

Daintree had the first party, last Thursday afternoon. Ice cream, cake and games were the afternoon's fare, with Betty Whitten, Louise Efimoff, Judy Pearson, Mary Ann Flores, Mary Lou Middlekauf, Donna Ray and Susan Hudson sharing in the fun.

There were more than 14 children at Judy Brohmer's party. Among those noses we counted were Judy Minze, Michael Walker, Stephen Brohmer, Jimmy and Leonard Beer. Patty, Dickie and Mickie Nolan, Carlton and Susan Gomes, Diana and Lonnie Rumpell, Norman Pratt and Odin Knudsen. Ice cream and cake was served by Margaret's mother, Mrs. Guy Paul Brohmer and her neighbor, Mrs. William Beer. This all happened Saturday afternoon.

Not so elaborate, but lots of fun was the surprise dinner party given by Chris Roman's wife, Helen, for his natal day. Attending were the Jack Dentons, the Sherman Garbers and the Claude Nelsons.

Another surprise party last week was not a birthday one, but a dinner party at Rickey's honoring Mr. and Mrs. John Cleese and Miss Pansy Jewett Abbott and her secretary, Miss Lovene Pierini. The dinner was given by the Ravenswood elementary school district board of trustees to pay tribute to Cleese and Miss Abbott for their many years of service to educaton in the community. The board presented Cleese with a certificate of appreciation for his services. Among those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley O. Schnepple, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Janssen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hynes, Mr. and Mrs. George Gayer and Mr. and Mrs. William Daseking.

Mrs. Eric Davies and Mrs. Ivor Nordstrom represented the East Palo Alto Grange at the Pomona home economics potluck luncheon last week.

Visitors from Modesto were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Lewis who spent three days at the home o Mr. and Mrs. John Dutra on Alberni avenue.

Just heard that the rummage sale held last Friday and Saturday at the American Legion hall by the Womens club of St. Francis church netted $200 toward their building fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon H. De Laney of Dumbarton avenue entertained at dinner on Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Higgens of Sacramento and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mac Eldouney of Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Denhart are spending a week visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Newton in Santa Rosa.

Mrs. James Watkins and her daughter Judy and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Watkins; Mrs. Walter Pfeffer and Mrs. Alice White, who is Mrs. Watkins' and Mrs. Pfefer's mother, are now in the southland. Mrs. Elizabeth Watkins is paying an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Bloomfield in Bakersfield.

Before the group left last Friday, the junior Mrs. Watkins entertained at a birthday dinner honoring her sister, Mrs. William Frank and her niece, Miss Doris Ann Crimm of Saratoga. Among the guests were the Walter Pfeffers and their two children, Clarence and Beverly; Charles Savage, Col. and Mrs. Lemuel Crimm, Mrs. E. Watkins and Mrs. White and the Jim Watkins family, including Mike and Judy.

MARGARET SHULLMAN BECOMES BRIDE OF FREDERICK LEDEBOER

Margaret Shullman of San Mateo Sunday afternoon became the bride of Frederick B. Ledeboer, brother of Mrs. John Huss Jr. of Menlo Park, in ceremonies at Stanford Memorial chapel.

The bride, given in marriage by Henry Knoll, wore an ecru linen ballerina length dress with V-neck, fitted bodce and short sleeves as she stepped to the altar for the exchange of vows. The skirt was trimmed with eyelet embroidery. A pillbox hat of the same material as the dress and a long veil were also worn by the bride, who carried a spray of orchids tied with a matching ribbon.

Mrs. Minna Sullivan, matron of honor, acted as bridal attendant. She wore a suit of forest green and carried a colonial bouquet of daffodils.

The ceremony was followed by a candlelight reception at the Marie Antoinette Hotel.

The couple, after honeymooning in Palm Springs, intend to make their home in San Mateo.

MP WOMEN ATTEND MEETING TO MAP CANCER FUND DRIVE

Four women from the south county area attended a meeting and tea last week at the San Mateo home of Mrs. Henry Bostwick Jr. at which plans were outlined for the forthcoming drive of the American Cancer society.

Mrs. Bostwick is publicity chairman for the San Mateo county branch of the society.

Taking part in the session were Mrs. Ross L. Wilson, Mrs. Jack Glunz and Mrs. Clinton Ohler of Menlo Park, Mrs. Douglass Langdon of Atherton and Mrs. King Harris of Woodside.

Mrs. W. Palmer Fuller Jr., state commander of the society, discussed functions and aims of the organization and gave instructions on conduct of the annual fund campaign.

DOUBLE CELEBRATION AT JOHN DUFF HOME

Things were lively last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Duff, 841 Middle avenue, with daughter June, 15 capturing a third place medal in an Oakland skating competition and daughter Patty Ann celebrating her 13th birthday.

The birthday was celebrated Saturday evening with Patty Ann entertaining 27 of her St. Joseph's school eighth grade school classmates at the home of her parents. Television and dancing provided entertainment for the evening.

The dining room and table from which the green and yellow trimmed birthday cake was served were trimmed in pastel shades.

ROSARY COURT TO MEET

Members of the Court of the Holy Rosary Catholic Daughters will hold their monthly business meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Mollie McIntosh, 2 Maple avenue, Atherton, at 8 p.m.

A Program For All

Recreation Activities

College Boxing Matches Set at EPA Rec Building

With Pete Franusich vs. Raul Diez as top bout for the night, sports fans in this area will be treated to challenge matches by an outstanding boxing team, that of San Jose State college, Tuesday night, March 14 at 8 p.m.

The bouts will be held at the Ravenswood recreation center, 550 Bell street in East Palo Alto.

Coach De Witt Portal will present his boxers in elimination matches to determine those who will enter the Pacific coast Intercollegiate matches March 24 and 25 and the National Intercollegiate matches March 30, 31 and April 1.

Woodie Lynn of San Jose will m.c. the sports night. Besides the boxing there will be a judo match and performances by the San Jose State college band.

One of the main matches will be in the 175 lb. division with Jack Nelson of Redwood City and former Sequoia high school student, Don Schaeffer, who was finalist in the POI last year and is president of the SJSC student body.

These challenge matches are sponsored by the Ravenswood Recreation association. All funds derived will go into the RRA treasury to further recreation in the area. A dinner honoring the team and other performers will be given by the association following the matches.

Jack Farrell, building director, says that double tiered bleachers will provide ringside seats for all.

Softball Players:

YOU'RE WANTED

A call for softball players was issued this week by Recreation Director Ferd Parsons along with the announcement that industrial league sponsors have indicated they will back eight teams for the forthcoming season.

All persons wishing to play on "I" league nines were urged to contact the recreation office.

New residents and others who wish to join league play, as well as "regulars", are welcome on the teams.

At a meeting of managers and sponsors held last week, Parsons stated, discussion centered on whether to sponsor A and B league teams or only A league competition.

Whether to distribute players so as to prevent a "walk away" win of league title was also discussed, Parsons continued but no decision has been reached.

"Whatever is decided," Parsons said, "we're going to have good competition and lots of fun this year. Those expecting to get on the teams should start training right away."

Cub Pack 4 Boys, Fathers to Fly Kites

Members of Menlo Park Cub Palk 4 and their fathers will make a kite flying excursion to the Sandhill road area Saturday, March 11.

Those wishing to take part are asked to meet in front of Fremont school at Middle avenue and Arbor road at 2 p.m.

Tennis Players Set Tournament

More than 25 members of the Menlo Park recreation department's tennis club met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Newport to view instructional moton pictures and to plan a tourney Sunday at the Burgess park courts.

The group was composed of junior and adult members of the organization, which discussed plans for more tennis classes and for matches with tennis teams from other cities, according to Mrs. Newport, club organizer.

The Sunday tournament will be an informal "play as you come" doubles event.

Membership in the club is open to both adults and youngsters, Mrs. Newport said.

Rep. Anderson Backs Amusement Tax Repeal

Representative Jack Z. Anderson, U. S. congressman from this district, has gone on record as favoring repeal of the 20 per cent federal amusement tax.

In a letter addressed to A. H. Castle, acting manager of the Park and Guild theaters during the recent illness of manager Hal Honore, Anderson acknowledged receipt of petitions favoring repeal of the tax and said:

"I want you and those who signed the petitions to know that I am definitely in favor of the repeal of wartime excise tax on amusements at the earliest possible date."

MENLO PARK SANITARY DISTRICT SPECIAL BOND ELECTION NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the qualified electors of Menlo Park Sanitary District, San Mateo County, State of California, that in accordance with the provisions of the Health and Safety Code of the State of California governing such elections, a special bond election has been called to be held and the same will be held at the place hereinafter designated in said Menlo Park Sanitary District, on from the hour of seven (7) o'clock A. M. of said day until the hour of seven (7) oclock P. M. of said day, during which period of time the polls will be kept continuously open, at which time and place there will be submitted to the voters of said District the question whether or not the bonds of said District shall be issued and sold in the amount and for the objects and purposes set forth in the following measure, to wit:

MEASURE: Shall Menlo Park Sanitary District, San Mateo County, incur a bonded indebtedness in the sum of Nine Hundred Eighty Thousand Dollars ($980,000) for the purpose of raising money for the acquisition and construction of sewers, drains and sewerage collection, outfall, treatment works and sanitary disposal system?

The question of issuing bonds to make all of said foregoing outlays shall be submitted to the voters as one proposal.

The said bonds hereby proposed to be issued and sold shall be 980 in number, numbered consecutively from 1 to 980, both inclusive, of the denomination of $1,000 each, and will bear interest at the rate of not to exceed six (6) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually. The number of years not to exceed which the whole of said bonds are to run is thirty (30) years.

Both the principal of and interest on said bonds will be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the office of the Treasurer of the County of San Mateo, in Redwood City, California.

For the conduct of said special bond election, Menlo Park Sanitary District shall constitute one consolidated voting precinct. The polling place and officers of election to conduct said election in said consolidated precinct are as follows:

CONSOLIDATED PRECINCT A
(Comprising all of the territory within the boundaries of Menlo Park Sanitary District)

Polling Place: Menlo Park Fire District Headquarters, 1077 Merrill Avenue, Menlo Park, San Mateo County.

Inspector: Mrs. Ruby West.
Judge: Mrs. Floyd Beach.
Judge: Mrs. John Vistica.

The said election is to be conducted as nearly as practicable in accordance with the general laws of the State of California.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands this 27th day of February, 1950.

Recreation Work Demonstrated, Told to Menlo P-TA

Members of the Menlo Park P-TA last night heard a talk on "Recreational Activities in Menlo Park" by Recreation Director Fred Parsons and witnessed demonstrations of crafts and dance skills at their monthly meeting at Central school auditorium.

Parsons outlined recreation department plans and discussed progress in providing the city with a well-rounded program.

Members of the "Crafts in Action" classes, which meet once a week at each school of the Menlo Park elementary district under direction of Mrs. James Stepp, displayed their work.

Members of the boxing classes for boys of from sixth to ninth grade age also put on a demonstration.

Progress of adult and children's folk dance groups was demonstrated by representatives of the Menlo Mixers and the childrens' folk dance classes instructed by Mrs. Vera Holleuffer.

Adults participating included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Newport, Mr. and Mrs. George Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Salzer, Mr. and Mrs. George Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Thiltgen, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Makle, Fred Slater and Priscilla Simmons.

Mrs. Jack Denton Is Reelected President of Ravenswood P-TA

Mrs. Jack Denton was reelected president of the Ravenswood P-TA at monthly meeting last night in Ravenswood school.

The members also elected Mrs. Claude Nelson, vice president; Mrs. S. W. Winters, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Stadler, financial secretary; Mrs. Joseph A. D'Anna, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lloyd Fero, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Grover, historian; Jim Innes, auditor; Mrs. John S. Clark, parliamentarian and Joseph D'Anna, honorary vice president.

Guest speaker was Warren Bailey, principal of a high school in Alberta, Canada, who is attending Stanford university to obtain his doctor of education degree. He spoke on "UNESCO and Elementary Education."

Erma Barnes, Ravenswood school seventh grade pupil, entertained with violin selections. She was accompanied by Mrs. D'Anna.

Jack Denton, general chairman of Fathers' Follies, reported a total profit for the show of $1085.

A brief ceremony crossing out the P-TA objectives for the year was then conducted by Mrs. Denton. The members found that all articles listed on the chart can now be purchased. A projector and a 9 ft. by 12 ft. permanent movie screen, two microscopes, encyclopedias, film strips and the Ravenswood P-TA share in purchasing a movie projector for Belle Haven school were the objectives achieved.

Tickets for the forthcoming "Easter Parade", fashion show to be held at Ravenswood school auditorium on Friday, March 24, at 8 p.m. were put on sale by Mrs. Thomas B. Fitch and Mrs. James Percy, chairmen. It was announced that the show will be a husband and wife affair.

A report by Mrs. Syd Goodnow, ways and means chairman, told that the recent salvage drive netted the P-TA more than $65. Mrs. John S. Clark reported that cup cake sales to Ravenswood school children on the last Friday of each month have earned $39 which was used to purchase the new cup and saucer sets used during the social hour. The remainder of the money will go to purchase a coffee urn and other kitchen supplies.

Hostesses for the evening were the teachers and room mothers of the second grades: Mrs. Margaret Phillips, Miss Helen Chandler, Mrs. Henry Borgia, Mrs. Charles Hively, Mrs. H. W. Monroe and Mrs. Dan Loveland.

George Reilly Seeks Reelection to Board

George R. Reilly of San Francisco has announced his candidacy for reelection to the state board of equalization from the First district, which includes San Mateo county.

Reilly, who has served on the board since 1938 and has been chairman the past six months, said he would file on both Republican and Democratic tickets for the June 6 primary election.

Louis R. Lurie was named chairman and finance director of the Reilly campaign committee.

EPA Attorney Seeks Judgeship

Frederick C. Dewar, 2257 Clark avenue, East Palo Alto, was one of two men who announced that they would run for election against Superior Court Judge Murray Draper in forthcoming county elections.

Dewar is an attorney with offices in San Francisco.

Also announcing candidacy was Howard Magee, Redwood City attorney who handled the fight against theproposed Southern Pacific railroad fare boost.

Both men pointed out that the incumbent was appointed by Governor Earl Warren and that they believed the people should have a right to decide who should be judge.

Dewar, 58, is a native of England and has been in the United States since shortly after the first World War. He studied law in England prior to that time, and has maintained a general law practice in San Francisco since 1925.

Auto Man to Run For SM Controller

Charles De Salvatore, Burlingame San Mateo automobile firm executive and civic leader, announced today he will be a candidate for the office of county controller at the June 6 primary election.

The post now is held by Fred Beer, former county supervisor appointed upon the death of Controller Tom Kane.

De Salvatore, a native of Italy, has been with a San Francisco automobile agency 29 years and has been branch manager at Burlingame the last 15 years. He is a member of several service organizations and heads the judiciary committee of the San Mateo county grand jury.

Mr. and Mrs. De Salvatore and their three children reside at 309 Sonora drive, San Mateo.

Dolwig Seeks Return To State Legislature

Assemblyman Richard J. Dolwig of South San Francisco has announced his candidacy for reelection to the legislature at the June primaries. He now is completing his second term.

Dolwig said his campaign is now being organized and will be in full swing early in April. He is a member of the assembly committee on rules and several other committees, and has led movements seeking early completion of the Bayshore freeway.

School Activities

Beginning March 10, every Thursday night and one Friday a month will be game night for seventh and eighth graders at Encinal school auditorium.

The sessions will be from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Facilities will be provided for volleyball, shuffleboard, pingpong and cards. Baseball games will be scheduled after daylight saving time becomes effective.

Sanny Loofbourow

Tony Babb, head of the Encinal school traffic patrol since its reorganization, has tendered his resignation. Caroline Harper, now a lieutenant, is expected to succeed him.

Cathy Treagle

Late additions to the Encinal school library include 16 volumes donated by Joan Zimmerman and 11 books donated by Douglas Hancock. Both donors are members of the third grade.

"Green Grass of Wyoming" was also added to the library this month.

Mrs. Grebmeier
Cathy Treagle

Maxine Cornblum of the Encinal school eighth grade was named winner of a spelling bee between teams from the eighth grades of Encinal and Central schools.

The "spelldown" was held in the Encinal school auditorium with Miss O'Grady of the county school department reading the words and Mel Homfeld and Glenn Smith acting as judges.

Contestants representing Central school included Bim Beckman, Leonardine Tiska, Marretta Ohram, Paula Lawrence, Bob Probert, Carolyne Johnson, Helen Stetson, Herb Gordon and Shirley Callettic.

Encinal school entries inclued Maxine Cornblum, Jackie Bouderey, Glenda Spear, LaVida Davis, Charles Aghem, Sanny Loufbourow, Priscilla Pinto, Gloria Bell, Gerry Rinfret, Rhoda Sonkin, Joanne Hellener and Alice Lum.

Dennis Anderson

The most exciting and spectacular game of his entire baseball career was a 1907 match between the Detroit Tigers and Philadelphia Atheltics, Ty Cobb told Encinal school interviewers recently.

In the ninth inning of that game, Ty said, the Tigers were two runs behind and had two men out.

"Rube Wadell, one of the greatest major league pitchers of all time, was hurling for the A's. Wadell threw left and I batted left. I just happened to hit one over the fence."

The "Georgia Peach" batted in another run in the 11th, but the game got tied and went 17 innings.

The Tigers used one pitcher during the entire game and the Athletics used four, Ty said, adding that the game damaged the Philadelphia Pitching staff and the Tigers went on to win the penant.

Taxes for SM County Government Decline

Property tax levies for county government purposes only in San Mateo county this year reached $4,019,813, a decrease of 9 per cent from the $4,417,850 levied for 1948-49, and an increase of 201.3 per cent over the $1,334,125 levy for 1939-40, California Taxpayers' association reported.

The figures do not include property tax levies for the cities in the county, the school districts or special districts.

Assessed value of taxable property in the county reached $214,141,281 for 1949-50, an increase of 11 per cent from the $192,999,746 for 1948-49 and an increase of 85.2 per cent from the $115,605,205 total valuation for 1939-40, the association found.

'Self Sale' Used Car Lot Permit Issued

The Menlo Park planning commission Monday night issued a use permit to David A. Bardes for a "self sale" used car lot on the east side of the 1100 block of El Camino Real.

Bardes told the commission that owners will be allowed to take their autos to the lot and fix the sale price, subject to the paying of a fixed commission.

The permit was issued subject to condition that the city building inspector approve improvements to the lot and that a public nuisance not be maintained.

SHOPPING WITH SHIRLEY

Have you been thinking of having a luncheon party for some of your friends? Or are you afarid to think of it because of the work involved? Forget the work, invite your friends, set the table and relax!.. We've found an easy way.

All you have to do is pick up the telephone and dial DA 3-0288. That's the number of The Bamboo, who will send you a complete meal of savory Chinese dishes hot and ready for your table.

They have special Lenten menus, too: meatless chow mein and chop suey, or you can substitute shrimps for meat in their usual dishes.

The Bamboo's chef, George Yep, puts a truly delightful flavor in every dish. If you "don't like Chinese cooking", try the Bamboo's and change your mind.

We certainly had a good time at Menlo Square Market's first anniversary celebration last week! Dogcart rides for the small fry; hot muffins baked on the spot with Duff's Hot Muffin Mix and served with Red & White coffee.

It may not always be party day at Menlo Square, but it's always a pleasure to shop there. And it's economical, too. You'll find what you want at a price you can pay, and you'll have no fuss and bother in battling traffic or finding a parking space.

And speaking of traffic and parking, brings me back to one of my favorite themes.

Why, oh why do Menlo Parkers go elsewhere to do their shopping?

In the last two years Menlo Park has become a complete shopping center. There are very few things that cannot be found right here, and in lovely modern shops as well.

FOR FUTURE CITIZENS

School Stresses Duty of Individual

(Editor's note: This is the first of a series of articles dealing with private school facilities in the South County area.)

Making students aware of the fact that everyone must live and work as the member of many groups and at the same time helping the individual pupil to develop his own potentialities is the task accepted by the administrators of Peninsula school.

The school, located in the quiet, country-like area south of Ringwood road, is operated as a group project with parents, teachers and the more than 80 pupils of ages ranging up to 14, contributing to and benefitting from family-like association.

To quote one of the school's bulletins: "...our competitive civilization calls too exclusively upon the child to excel as an individual and consequently tends to encourage self-centeredness. Peninsula school stresses the duties of the child toward the group, requiring him to assume the responsibilities of an active, constructive member of the community, and to do all the daily chores that school life demands. In this way the school becomes a miniature of democracy, which can survive only if each citizen contributes actively to it."

presentation will be informal, lively, and devoted especially to local community interests.

Author of Leadership for Today's Clubwoman, (N. Y. 1939), a book which won the biennial national non-fiction award of the League of American Pen Women, Mrs. Waldo has been active in many women's organizations on the local, state, and national levels.

WIDE EXPERIENCE

Interested chiefly in the human relations and program sides of group activities, which she feels are most important, the columnist has been staff writer and consultant on programs and drama for the Farmer's Wife magazine, St. Paul, and Sunday club writer for the Milwaukee Journal, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She has also edited state magazines for the North Dakota Federation of Women's clubs and the North Dakota American Legion Auxiliary and served as society and feature editor on newspapers in Mandan and Bismark, N. D.

A former high school and college teacher of English, speech, and journalism, with a return to service during the recent war, Mrs. Waldo has also had library training and experience and has lectured professionally throughout the Middle West and East.

Already well known in the vicinity as a book reviewer, she has covered books for newspapers, radio, and subscription groups and is in close touch with eastern book publishers.

"Since it takes a good program to bring people to meetings," Mrs. Waldo said in discussing column plans, "and since current books, plays, and music are part of good programming, I intend to devote some of my space each week to realistic, down to earth book discusssion."

Mrs. Waldo has written four books of western history and contributed articles and stories to a wide variety of magazines and newspapers over a period of 25 years.

Youngsters Should Have An Opportunity to Cook, Learn About Food Items

MOTHERS who give their children a chance to work in the kitchen with actual foods as they're supposed to be served contribute highly to bringing up good and helpful adults. Theirs aren't the daughters who are all thumbs when it comes to preparing their first meal after marriage, nor are their sons inept at tossing together a salad to help out a new bride!

Most youngsters actually like cooking, and during growing years can be really helpful to mother, if they're given the opportunity to learn.

SPAGHETTI is a favorite dish for teen-agers to prepare. Here's one made with salami that needs only a tossed green salad and fresh or canned fruit to complete the menu.

Quick Italian Spaghetti
(Serves 6-8)

- ½ pound salami
- Lard or drippings for browning
- 1 cup onions, chopped
- 1 cup fresh mushrooms, sliced
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1½ cups tomato juice
- 1 cup water
- 1½ teaspoons worcestershire sauce
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 2 tablespoons parsley, minced
- ¼ green pepper, chopped
- 6-8 ounces uncooked spaghetti

Brown onions and mushrooms lightly in drippings. Cut ½ of salami into 8 thin slices and grind or chop other half. Blend into the onion mixture the chopped salami and flour. Add tomato juice, diluted with water and seasonings. Simmer 25 minutes. Add parsley and green pepper and cook 5 minutes longer. In the meantime cook spaghetti in boiling, salted water until tender. To serve, make a ring of the cooked spaghetti on platter and pour spaghetti sauce in center. Circle with sliced salami.

MEAT LOAF lends itself easily to preparation by novices in the kitchen. Here's one made mainly with ham and fortified with other meat and bread.

Ham Loaf
(Serves 10)

- 1½ pounds ground ham shank
- ½ pound ground beef, lamb or veal
- 4 slices bread, flaked
- 2 eggs
- 2 cups milk
- 1 medium sized onion, grated
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper

Combine ingredients in order given and pack into a greased loaf pan. Bake in a slow (300°) oven for 1½ hours.

GIVE THE TEEN-AGERS desserts which are easy to prepare, but which look special when they're finished. Everyone likes to turn out desserts which are pretty as a picture!

Sunshine Peach Pie
(Serves 6-8)

Crumb Shell:

- 1¼ cups fine sugar-honey graham cracker crumbs
- 2 tablespoons granulated sugar
- ⅓ cup melted butter

Filling:

- 2 eggs
- ¾ cup milk
- ½ cup granulated sugar
- ⅛ teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon plain gelatin
- ⅓ cup orange juice
- 1 tablespoon grated orange rind
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2 cups canned cling peaches

To make shell, blend crumbs, sugar and butter and pack firmly into bottom and sides of nine-inch pie pan. Bake in a moderate (350°) oven for 10 minutes. Cool.

To make filling, separate eggs and beat yolks. Combine yolks, milk, ¼ cup sugar and salt. Cook and stir over hot water until mixture coats the spoon. Remove from heat. Soften gelatin in orange juice, then dissolve in hot mixture. Add rind and lemon juice. Cool until the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Beat egg whites until stiff and gradually beat in remaining sugar. Fold into cooked mixture. Fold in peach slices, thoroughly drained, reserving a few for garnish. Pour into cooled shell. Top with remaining slices. Chill until firm.

SHOPPING . . .

munities are beginning to discover what Menlo Park has to offer. They are coming here because they find what they want and they don't have to worry about traffic, difficult parking and "Oh dear, I only have five minutes left on my parking meter."

Yet one often hears Menlo Park women say they've been off shopping elsewhere. Why? It reminds me of the woman who used to pay 60 cents taxi fare to ride across the city to a place where she could save 30 cents on soap.

Besides being pleasant, shopping in Menlo Park is generally as economical as it is anywhere, and if you should find something a little bit cheaper somewhere else, by the time you've added the gasoline, tires, parking charges and wear and tear, you'll find you would have done better right here at home.

Next time, try Menlo Park first.

SCHOOLS . . .

philosophy stands up well on the record. A survey made a few years ago revealed that more than 80 per cent of those who attended Peninsula school went to college and most of those who attended college got better-than-average grades in the latter institutions.

The curriculum is in keeping with the standards set by the state. Instruction technique is described as "progressive."

With smaller classes and a wide range of courses, the school seeks to provide more or less individualized progressive traning.

The institution was established by a group of parents in 1926. It has been and is now operated as a cooperative non-profit enterprise, with the parents as stockholders.

The responsibilities of the parents do not end with attending an annual stockholders' meeting. Mothers and fathers are encouraged to attend classes and see for themselves how the school is succeeding in its task, and in addition there are group projects for them.

OLD ESTATE

The school is located in a large Victorian house on what was once the Coleman estate. Although the building has an old-fashioned appearance with high ceilings, "gingerbread" and wide verandas, it has many large rooms and the space necessary for classes composed of active youngsters.

The walls of most of the halls of the building are covered with travel posters, maps and displays dealing with foreign countries—one of the many ways of reminding pupils that they are members of an international community just as much as they are members of the school's student body.

Fade
THOSE WEATHERED
BROWN SPOTS
New Kind of Hand Cream
Especially Made to do it!

ESOTERICA is that marvelous new kind of hand cream for fading those brown spots that make your hands look old.
Also fades other surface blemishes and roughness in a way no ordinary hand cream or lotion can.
Leaves hands whiter, clearer, younger looking quickly—often within the first few days.
While ESOTERICA looks and feels like the finest non-greasy vanishing hand cream, it has an added clearing action.
Produced in a laboratory that has studied the effect of cosmetics on skin pigments for 25 years.
Thousands gladly paid $5.00 for ESOTERICA.
Now in quantity production, it can be sold for $2.00, plus tax.
If you want clearer, whiter-looking hands, get ESOTERICA. Money back if the first jar does not bring desired results.
